Article 2. Legal Basis for the NBU Activities

The National Bank of Ukraine (hereinafter referred to as the NBU) is the central bank of Ukraine, a special central body of the state administration, whose legal status, objectives, functions, powers and organization principles shall be determined by the Constitution of Ukraine, this Law and other laws of Ukraine.

The city of Kyiv is the principal place of business of the National Bank of Ukraine Council (NBU Council), Board (NBU Board) and Head Office.

Article 3. Authorized Capital

The NBU shall have the authorized capital owned by the state.

The authorized capital shall amount to UAH 10 million. It may be increased by a decision of the NBU Council.

A part of the NBU's unallocated profit and, if necessary, the State Budget of Ukraine shall be sources of its authorized capital.

Article 4. Economic Independence

The NBU shall have economic independence as an authority using its own revenues and, in cases provided for hereby, the State Budget of Ukraine, to cover its expenses within approved administrative expense budget.

The NBU shall be a legal entity with separated property that is the subject to the public property rights and is allocated to the NBU under the terms of its full economic control.

The NBU shall not be liable for or assume the commitments of government bodies; the government bodies shall not be liable for the NBU's commitments, unless they voluntarily assume such a commitment.

The NBU shall not be liable for or assume the commitments of other banks: other banks shall not be liable for the NBU's commitments, unless they voluntarily assume such a commitment.

The NBU may open its institutions, branches and representative offices in Ukraine, as well as representative offices abroad.

The NBU, its institutions, branches and representative offices shall have a seal with the Coat of Arms of Ukraine and their respective names.

Article 5. Budget of Administrative Expenses

The NBU shall prepare an annual budget for its administrative expenses sufficient for the NBU to carry out its functions specified herein and in the Constitution of Ukraine.

The NBU's administrative expenses budget shall include estimated expenses, in particular depreciation charge, provisions for impairment of assets and investments to support NBU's activities, as well as NBU Council members' remuneration with a detailed break down by amount, positions and payment frequency.

The NBU shall represent the income and expenses, determine the profit (loss) and compile the financial reporting in accordance with the international financial reporting standards.

The NBU creates general reserves to cover its losses, revaluation reserves to cover unrealized losses and other reserves to finance investments supporting NBU's activities.

In case of insufficiency of funds in the general reserves the excess of the NBU expenses over its income shall be compensated from the State Budget of Ukraine for the year following the reporting one.

Article 5¹. Distributable Profit

The NBU activities shall not be profit-oriented.

The NBU defines its distributable profit as a portion of profit net of unrealized gains. The NBU's unrealized gains are recognized in a revaluation reserve.

A gain becoming realized in the following periods is recognized in the distributable profit of the respective reporting periods.

The NBU shall compensate the amount of excess of the unrealized loss over the revaluation reserve amount at the expense of current year profit and, if it is not sufficient, at the expense of general provisions.

Upon validation by an external auditor and approval by the NBU Council of the NBU's annual financial statements, the NBU shall use distributable profit to create general provisions at the level of 10 percent of the NBU's monetary liabilities.

The NBU Council may also decide to use the distributable profit to create the reserves for financing investments that support the NBU operation (up to 2 percent of the NBU's monetary liabilities) and for the NBU's authorized capital increase.

After the part of distributable profit has been used for the purposes defined in paragraphs five and six of this Article, the rest of distributable profit shall be transferred to the State Budget in full.

The NBU shall not transfer to the State Budget of Ukraine the portion of distributable profit that exceeds the one declared in the audited financial statements approved by the NBU Council.

Article 6. Primary Objective

According to the Constitution of Ukraine, the primary objective of the NBU is to ensure stability of the monetary unit of Ukraine.

When exercising its function, the NBU shall consider achievement and maintenance of price stability in the country to be its priority.

The NBU shall promote, within the limits of its authority, financial stability, including stability of the banking system, without prejudice of the objective set forth in the second part of this Article.

The NBU shall also promote sustainability of the economic growth and support the economic policy of the Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine provided that it does not prevent the NBU from attainment of the aims determined in the second and third parts of this Article.

In order to be appointed the NBU Council members, prospective candidates must prove that they meet the requirements specified in paragraph 3 and 4 of this Article.

The NBU Council members hold office for seven years, except the NBU Governor whose term in office is limited by his/her tenure as governor. The NBU Council members cannot serve more than two consecutive terms.

Appointments and dismissals of the NBU Council members should not prevent the NBU Council from holding its meetings in line with the requirements of Article 11, paragraph 4 of this Law.

An NBU Council member is dismissed if his/her term of office has expired, or:

- 1) a resignation letter has been submitted, stating the reasons for the decision;
- 2) a court decided to declare the person legally incapable;
- 3) the NBU Council member's activities do not comply with the law or he/she has lost the irreproachable business reputation;
- 4) he/she has unreasonably failed to attend two consecutive council meetings;
- 5) he/she has failed to perform their duties, including due to poor health, for four months running;
- 6) finding of the fact that such a person has submitted inadequate information to be appointed a member of the NBU Council;
- 7) circumstances arise preventing an NBU Council member from fulfilling his/her duties, as set forth in parts 3 and 4 of this Article.

If a council member dies, or if a court declares a council member missing or dead, as applicable, their term of office is deemed expired from the day of their death, as stated in their death certificate, or from the day the court decision that declares them missing or dead comes into force.

The President of Ukraine may dismiss the members of the NBU Council appointed by him/her by a relevant Decree indicating causes of the dismissal.

The Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine may dismiss the members of the NBU Council appointed by the Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine via a relevant Resolution on the initiative of the relevant Committee of the Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine indicating causes of the dismissal.

The powers of the NBU Governor as a member of the NBU Council shall be early terminated in case of his/her resignation or dismissal for other reasons specified hereby.

The NBU Council members, apart from the NBU Governor, receive remuneration from the NBU. The amount of the remuneration payable to NBU Council members is proposed by the NBU Board, and is subject to approval of the NBU Council.

The remuneration received by a NBU Council member must be disclosed in the NBU annual financial statements.

The NBU defrays the expenses that NBU council members incur in line of their duty, as set forth in the NBU Council Regulation.

The materials and equipment required by the NBU Council and its bodies are paid for out of the NBU's administrative expenses.

Article 11. Working Procedures of the NBU Council

The NBU Council acts on the basis of the NBU Council Regulation.

The NBU Council must meet at least ten times a year.

Article 49. Safekeeping of the Gold and Foreign Exchange Reserve

The NBU shall be the sole custodian of the national gold and foreign exchange reserve, as well as of precious metals, stones and other valuables belonging to the state.

Article 50. Excluded

Article 50. Non-operating Foreign Exchange Gains and Losses

The NBU's gains and losses from the re-evaluation of assets and liabilities represented in the form of gold, foreign currency and special drawing rights, due to changes in the foreign currency exchange rates and the price for gold, shall be taken into consideration and set off as follows:

- 1) net foreign exchange gains and losses shall be balanced by a corresponding amount on the special reserve account for re-evaluation of the foreign exchange reserve on the balance sheet of the NBU;
- 2) said net gains and losses shall not be taken into consideration (accounted), when calculating the annual income of the NBU.

Section IX. RELATIONS WITH THE PRESIDENT OF UKRAINE, VERKHOVNA RADA OF UKRAINE AND CABINET OF MINISTERS OF UKRAINE

Article 51. Accountability

The NBU shall be accountable to the President of Ukraine and the Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine within their constitutional authority.

The accountability shall mean the following:

- 1) the NBU Governor is nominated by the President of Ukraine and appointed and dismissed by Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine;
- 2) a half of the NBU Council members is appointed and dismissed by the President of Ukraine;
- 3) a half of the NBU Council members is appointed and dismissed by the Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine;

4) the NBU Governor presents to the Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine a report about the NBU's activities;

5) the NBU informs the President of Ukraine and the Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine on the situation in the money market twice a year.

The NBU shall on the quarterly basis inform the President of Ukraine, the Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine and the Parliamentary Committee on Finance and Banking about the non-cash money issued during the respective period, namely:

for the bank refinancing purposes;

for the interventions in the inter-bank foreign exchange market;

for the stock market operations.

The NBU may submit to the President of Ukraine, in accordance with the procedure established by law, proposals on legal regulation of the issues aimed at the exercise of functions of the NBU.

On the annual basis, the NBU shall submit to the President of Ukraine, the Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine and the Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine the following:

by 15 March, monetary indicators estimated for the next year;

by 1 April, information on the calculation of the part of projected distributable profit to be transferred to the state budget in the current year;

by 1 September, information on the calculation of the projected distributable profit to be transferred to the state budget in the following year.

Article 52. Relations with the Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine

The NBU and the Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine shall consult each other on the issues of the monetary policy, development and implementation of the National Economic and Social Development Program.

Upon the request of the Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine, the NBU shall provide the information about monetary processes and money market.

Upon the request of the NBU, the Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine, ministries and other central government authorities shall furnish it with the information affecting status of the balance of payments, money market, including the monthly information about the indicators of revenues, expenses and deficit of the State and consolidated budgets, conditions of the state debt and schedule of payments thereunder.

The NBU shall support the economic policy of the Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine, provided that such a policy is not detrimental to the stability of the monetary unit of Ukraine.

The NBU Governor or, by his/her order, one of the Deputy Governors may take part in sessions of the Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine with the right of deliberative vote.

Members of the Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine may take part in sessions of the NBU Board with the right of deliberative vote.

The NBU may submit to the President of Ukraine in accordance with the procedure established by law proposals on legislative settlement of the issues aimed at the exercise of functions of the NBU.

Article 53. Guarantees of Non-Interference

Any interference of the public authorities, other public institutions or their officials, any legal entities or individuals in the exercise of functions and powers of the NBU, NBU Council, NBU Board or the NBU employees shall be prohibited, except for within the limits stipulated by the Constitution of Ukraine and this Law.

The NBU shall report to the public authorities and other public institutions and furnish them with information in the cases set forth by the Constitution of Ukraine and this Law.

All matters related to the NBU functions may only be defined and altered by this Law. Any provision of this Law may only be changed by amending the Law.

Article 54. Ban on Lending to the State

The NBU must not grant loans in the national or foreign currency, both directly and indirectly, through a public institution or other legal entity whose property is state-owned, with the purpose of financing the expenses of the State Budget of Ukraine.

The NBU must not purchase in the primary market any securities issued by the Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine, a public institution or other legal entity whose property is state-owned.

Section X. BANKING REGULATION AND BANKING SUPERVISION

Article 55. Objective and Scope of the Banking Supervision

The main objective of the banking regulation and supervision shall be the security and financial stability of the banking system and protection of interests of depositors and creditors.

The NBU shall exercise the banking regulation and individual and consolidated supervision over the activities of banks and banking groups, within the limits and in a manner prescribed by the laws of Ukraine.

The NBU shall exercise ongoing supervision over meeting by banks, their divisions, affiliated and related parties of banks on the territory of Ukraine and abroad, bank unions, representative offices and branches of the foreign banks in Ukraine as well as by other legal entities and individuals, the requirements of banking laws as well as the regulations and economic ratios issued or established by the NBU. The NBU shall not carry out inspections and revisions of the financial and economic activities of the entities and individuals mentioned in this Article.

Article 56. NBU Regulations

The NBU issues regulations and administrative documents.

The NBU shall issue regulations within its jurisdiction, binding for the government bodies and institutions of local government, banks, enterprises and institutions regardless of the forms of ownership thereof, as well as for the individuals.

The administrative documents issued by the NBU include internal orders and administrative enactments that are not regulations. Internal orders and administrative enactments are made public and come into force in accordance with the procedure specified by the NBU.

The NBU regulations shall be issued in the form of the NBU Board resolutions, as well as instructions, regulations and rules approved by the NBU Board resolutions. They must not contradict the laws of Ukraine and other regulations of Ukraine and shall not be applied retroactively unless they commute or remit punishment.

The NBU regulations (except for the regulations containing restricted information) that are legislative enactments are drawn up, approved, and made public, as set forth in the Law of Ukraine On State Policies Regulating Business Activity.

The NBU regulations (except for the regulations containing restricted information) come into force on the day that they are officially published, unless otherwise specified by the relevant regulation. The NBU regulation is deemed promulgated when its text is for the first time published in full in one of the following periodicals: Ofitsiynyi Visnyk Ukrainy (Official Herald of Ukraine), Uriadovyi Kurier (Government Gazette), Holos Ukrainy or posted on the official web site of the NBU.

The NBU regulations that contain restricted information must not be published, and are communicated to the legal entities and households they concern in the manner specified by the NBU.

The NBU regulations that contain restricted information come into force, as set forth in these regulations.

The NBU regulations and enactments can be appealed against, as set forth in Ukrainian law.

Article 57. Access to Information

In order to exercise its functions, the NBU is entitled to obtain free of charge from the banks, bank unions (associations) and legal entities that have obtained a license from the NBU to perform certain banking transactions, as well as from the persons whose activities are supervised by the NBU pursuant to the Law of Ukraine On Banks and Banking, the information of their activities and explanations with regard to the obtained information and effected transactions.

In order to be able to produce monetary, financial, balance of payments, international investment position, external debt and banking statistics, deliver an analysis of financial stability, as well as to analyze and forecast macroeconomic, monetary, foreign exchange and financial indicators, the NBU may request that state and local authorities, as well as economic entities, regardless of their form of ownership, provide it, free of charge, with the required information.

The received information is not subject to disclosure, except for cases, envisaged by laws of Ukraine.

Article 58. Economic Ratios

In order to protect interests of depositors and creditors, and ensure the financial reliability of the banks, the NBU shall establish for them the mandatory economic ratios according to the procedure specified by it. These ratios shall ensure the control over the risks related to the capital, the liquidity, granting credits, capital investments, as well as over the interest rate and currency risks.

The NBU shall officially notify of the subsequent changes in the ratios and methods of their calculation not later than one month before they are put into effect.

Article 59. Risk Provisions

The NBU shall determine the amounts, procedures for creating and using the reserves (provisions) of banks to cover their potential loan losses, as well as provisions to cover the currency, interest rate and other risks of the banks.

The reserves against possible financial risks and for the deposit guarantee fund shall be created at the expense of the income before taxes pursuant to the laws of Ukraine.

Article 60. Excluded

Article 61. Regulatory Powers

The NBU shall exercise the regulation of banks' activities in the forms specified in the Law of Ukraine On Banks and Banking both directly and through a banking supervision authority established by it.

Article 62. Invalid

Article 63. Restriction on the NBU Requirements

The NBU shall not be entitled to demand from banks to effect transactions or commit other actions which are not envisaged by laws of Ukraine and regulations of the NBU.

SECTION XI. EMPLOYEES OF THE NBU

Article 64. Status of the NBU Employees

The terms of employment, dismissal, granting leaves, job responsibilities and rights, disciplinary action and social protection of the NBU employees shall be defined by the NBU Board in compliance with the employment laws. Temporarily, to 30 September 2017, during their employment at the NBU the NBU employees will receive 85 percent of the awarded pension amount, if the pension exceeds 150 percent of the minimum living wage set for the disabled, but not less than 150 percent of the minimum living wage set for the disabled. Exceptions to this are disabled people who are assigned to the first or second disability group by Ukrainian law, disabled servicemen who are assigned to the third disability group by Ukrainian law, people who have the status of combatants, and people subject to Article 10, paragraph 1 of the Law of Ukraine On the Status of War Veterans and Their Guaranteed Social Protection.

The employees of the NBU shall be professional and support staff of the NBU. The professionals of the NBU shall be deemed the persons directly involved in the exercise of the functions of the NBU and occupying the positions provided for by the Personnel Arrangements.

The NBU Board may specify the positions of employment with the labor agreements in the form of a contract.

The support staff of the NBU shall consist of the employees whose duties are not directly concerned with the NBU's functions.

Salary conditions for professionals employed at the NBU are set by the NBU Board on the basis of the labor remuneration laws.

Wages of the support staff of the NBU shall be established by the NBU Board according to the provisions of the labor remuneration laws.

Article 64¹. Legal Protection

NBU Board and Council members, as well as other staff members, must comply with the NBU Code of Ethics, and seek to avoid conflicts of interests.

NBU Board and Council members, other staff members, and independent experts consulted by the NBU do not bear any responsibility for their actions, or any failure to take action, if they act within the powers and in the manner set forth in the Ukrainian constitution and laws. Any legal action taken against the NBU staff members is deemed a legal action taken against the NBU. If any legal, disciplinary, or criminal action is taken against the NBU Board and Council members, other staff members, and independent experts consulted by the NBU, the NBU provides legal protection to them, among other things, by seeking legal advice from lawyers and other professionals.

Any damages arising from decisions or actions taken, or any failure to take action, by the NBU (staff members or experts consulted), including damages arising from professional errors made by the NBU staff members and/or experts consulted, are covered by the NBU, as applicable, and by insurance companies on the basis of the relevant insurance agreements, if any.

The NBU has the statutory right to obtain professional liability insurance and disability insurance for the NBU Board members, as well as for other staff members.

Any compensation paid by the NBU, as applicable, or by insurance companies on the basis of the relevant insurance agreements, if any, for damages arising from decisions or actions taken, or any failure to take action, by the NBU (staff members or experts consulted), including damages arising from professional errors made by NBU staff members and/or experts consulted, does not exempt those found guilty from any disciplinary and/or criminal action that may be taken against them, as applicable.

Article 65. Prohibited Activity

NBU Board and other staff members are subject to the restrictions specified by the anti-corruption law, including the law's provisions with respect to conflicts of interests. A conflict of interests arises when NBU Board, Council, and other staff members have private interests that compromise or may compromise their impartiality and objectivity when performing their duties.

Unless otherwise provided for by law, NBU staff members and their first degree relatives are prohibited from being members of banks' boards of directors, or shareholders of banks and affiliated companies, including those that are banking group members.

Article 66. Protection of Secrets

The NBU officials, both during and after their term of office, are prohibited from disclosing the information, which constitutes the state secret, banking secret, or is of confidential nature and which has come to their knowledge in the course of the performance of their official duties, except for the cases specified by the laws of Ukraine.

SECTION XII

MONETARY, FINANCIAL, BALANCE OF PAYMENTS, INTERNATIONAL INVESTMENT POSITION, EXTERNAL DEBT, AND BANKING STATISTICS

Article 67. Definition of Reporting

In order to exercise the regulatory and supervisory functions, the NBU shall define the forms of reporting (including the consolidated one), as well as the procedure of its compilation and presentation to the NBU, being mandatory for all the business entities, including:

1) for (resident and non-resident) banks that are located in Ukraine, banking groups, banking group members to compile monetary, financial, balance of payments, international investment position, external debt, and banking statistics;

2) for all (resident and non-resident) economic agents to compile balance of payments, international investment position, and external debt statistics, as well as to use foreign exchange controls.

The information provided by banks, non-banking financial institutions, and other economic agents shall not be disclosed except in the cases provided for by Ukrainian law.

The requirements of this Article shall not apply to the consolidated statistical information, which shall be openly published by the NBU.

Article 68. Publications

In order to ensure the transparency in the banking business and statistics of the balance of payments, the NBU shall:

1) make public its annual and quarterly balance sheets in its official publications, as well as on its official web site;

2) issue monthly statistical bulletins, as well as other publications in an electronic or printed form;

3) publish in the official publications the current banking information and data on the monetary and banking statistics, provided that such information does not constitute the state or banking secret;

4) provides information on the monetary and banking statistics and statistics of the balance of payments for publication pursuant to the international agreements;

5) ensure informing of public on a monthly basis about the decisions of the NBU Board regarding the interest rates and conditions of conducting transactions with banks and other facts important for the financial market participants as well as about the refinancing and exchange rate policy implemented by the NBU, including:

the loans granted to banks (for a term of more than 30 calendar days) with obligatory reference to the bank's name, loan amount and type, collateral type and date of the respective decision of the NBU;

the currency interventions with obligatory reference to the transaction type (purchase/sale of foreign currency), transaction amount, currency and exchange rate of the intervention.

The NBU makes public information about its activity on its official web site and in its official publications, via press conferences, radio or TV programs, as well as via other statutory means.

The data to be published in the mass media shall be determined by the State Statistics Committee of Ukraine in accordance with the laws of Ukraine.

The NBU shall be the owner of the consolidated information on the monetary and banking activities and specify the regime of access thereto in accordance with the laws of Ukraine. The official banking information shall be possible to use by other bodies in their publications only upon authorization of the NBU or with reference to its official source.

The NBU shall publish, in accordance with the procedure established by the NBU, the following information on the official NBU webpage:

- 1) ownership structure of banks and banking groups;
- 2) bank managers;
- 3) managers and qualifying shareholders of the banks liquidated for reasons other than a decision of their owners.

SECTION XIII. AUDIT OF THE NBU

Article 69. Internal Auditing

The NBU shall establish an internal audit department tasked with assessing the effectiveness of risk management, internal controls and governance in NBU structural units, guided by international standards for the professional practice of internal auditing.

The internal audit department will act on the basis of bylaws approved by the NBU Council.

Internal audits of NBU's structural units are carried out in accordance with an annual plan, and in the manner that is approved by the NBU Council, at the suggestion of the Audit Committee.

The NBU Governor may request an unscheduled internal audit of NBU's structural units.

The internal audit department shall maintain independence when auditing the NBU's structural units. The internal audit department must, on a regular basis, report to the NBU Council, the NBU Governor, and the NBU Board about the findings of internal audits of the NBU's structural units.

A chief internal audit executive is appointed by the NBU Council for a period of five years. A chief internal audit executive cannot serve more than two consecutive terms.

A chief internal audit executive must meet the requirements specified in Article 10, part 3, of this Law, and must have worked in the areas of auditing, accounting, or risk management for at least five years.

A chief internal audit executive is also subject to the restrictions set forth in Article 20, part 5, of this Law.

A chief internal audit executive is dismissed by the NBU Council on the basis of the reasons specified in Article 20, part 8, of this Law.

Article 70. External Audit

Audits of NBU annual financial statements, which have been produced according to international financial reporting standards, must be carried out at least once a year by an audit firm that has experience in delivering central bank audits. Audits of NBU annual financial statements must be delivered in compliance with international auditing standards.

Prior to delivering an audit of NBU annual financial statements, the audit firm must be approved by the NBU Council in accordance with a procurement process, as set forth in the Law of Ukraine On Public Procurement.

An audit firm cannot audit NBU's annual financial statements for more than five consecutive years.

In monitoring how money is received and spent by Ukraine's state budget, the Accounting Chamber checks how the targets of NBU administrative expenses are met.

SECTION XIV. SPECIAL PROVISIONS

Article 71. Restrictions on Activities

The NBU shall be prohibited from:

- 1) being a shareholder or participating member of the banks or other enterprises and institutions, unless otherwise prescribed by law;
- 2) effecting transactions with real estate, other than those related to supporting the activities of the NBU and its institutions;
- 3) being engaged in the trade, manufacturing, insurance and other activities, which do not relate to the functions of the NBU;
- 4) allotting credits, loans to legal persons and individuals except for the cases prescribed herein.

The restrictions specified in part one of this Article shall not apply to:

- 1) acquiring any rights and assets for the purpose of meeting the NBU debts, subject to alienation of them at earliest possible date;
- 2) the cases specified in Article 42 hereof;
- 3) participating in the capital of other enterprises and institutions supplementing the activities of the NBU;
- 4) production activity of the Banknote Printing and Minting Works, Paper Mill and State Treasury of Ukraine carried out in accordance with the regulations approved by the NBU Board.
- 5) paragraph 5 of part 2 of Article 71 was excluded

Article 72. Taxation

The NBU shall pay taxes in accordance with the tax laws of Ukraine.

Article 73. Preferential and Unconditional Right

The NBU shall have preferential and unconditional right to satisfy any mature claim stemming from refinancing of a bank which has been executed in accordance with the established legal procedure.

The NBU exercises this right by debiting, without any right to appeal, the money owed to it from the bank's accounts, selling the property used as collateral for NBU loans, as well as by using the net proceeds raised through such sales to satisfy its claims. The NBU may sell the property that it acquired from banks to recover the money it loaned to the banks with the purpose of supporting the NBU's liquidity, without the approval of other public authorities.

The NBU may also exercise its right to write off indisputably the funds on the correspondent account of a bank in favor of the Deposit Guarantee Fund at a request of the Fund in accordance with the procedure established by the Law of Ukraine On Household Deposit Guarantee System.

The first and second parts of this Article shall not apply to the banks declared insolvent that are being resolved by the Fund in accordance with the Law of Ukraine On Households Deposit Guarantee System.

Article 74. Appealing against NBU Decisions

Decisions taken by the NBU and its members of staff can only be appealed against in a court of law if the purpose of the appeal is to establish whether or not the decisions were legal.

Appeals do not suspend the execution of the contested NBU decision or action. While considering appeals, courts cannot suspend the execution of NBU decisions or actions, or rule that the NBU performs, or refrains from performing, certain actions.

SECTION XV. FINAL PROVISIONS

1. This Law shall come into effect from the date of its publication with the exception of parts nine and ten of Article 10 hereof which become effective from the date of appointment of the NBU Council in full by the President of Ukraine and Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine.

2. The NBU Council shall be made up within two months after this Law becomes effective. During the formation of the NBU Council, its functions regarding the monetary policy shall be exercised by the NBU Board.

3. The following shall be deemed void:

Sections II and V of the Law of Ukraine On Banks and Banking (News of the Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine, 1991, No. 25, p.281); 281);

Resolution of the Presidium of the Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine On the Charter of the National Bank of Ukraine of 7 October 1991.

4. The requirements as to qualification of the members of the NBU Council and NBU Governor specified herein shall apply to the persons appointed to the positions of Council members and Governor of the NBU after coming into effect of the Law of Ukraine On Amendments to Certain Laws of Ukraine regarding the National Bank of Ukraine Activities of 9 July 2010.

The members of the NBU Council appointed to their positions before coming into effect of the Law of Ukraine On Amendments to Certain Laws of Ukraine regarding the National Bank of Ukraine Activities of 9 July 2010 shall continue exercising their powers till expiry of their tenure.

5. The NBU shall during three months from coming into effect of the Law of Ukraine On Amendments to Certain Laws of Ukraine regarding the National Bank of Ukraine Activities of 9 July 2010 make up the NBU Board according to the requirements introduced thereby and bring its regulations in line with this Law.

6. The NBU is obliged to allocate money to general reserves, as set forth in Article 5¹ of this Law, until the general reserves in 2014, 2015 and 2016 account for 4%, 7%, and 10% of the NBU's monetary obligations.

The NBU has the right to transfer its profit to the state budget in the first quarter of 2015, but no more than 25% of the annual amount.
